A spectacular choice for your special day

Classic and true, traditionally you.....

Welcome to Bedern Hall – A splendid yet intimate setting situated in the heart of York, close to the Minster, this beautifully restored medieval hall dates from the 14th century.

Licensed for civil ceremonies and available for wedding receptions, Bedern Hall provides the perfect venue for a ceremony and celebration that defy trends and fads and simply stand on classic taste.

An historic venue

Bedern Hall has stood the test of time as the perfect place to gather.

With its soaring beamed ceiling, arched windows and warm stone walls, Bedern Hall is a breathtaking yet intimate space. Return to the little rituals that have stood the test of time. Experience the best of the old and the new, enjoying a traditional feel with all the modern touches needed to make your special day just as you envisage.

The pretty courtyard and garden terrace provide the perfect setting for photographs and being in the heart of the city means that your guests are in walking distance of the railway station and nearby car parks.

By choosing Bedern Hall for your ceremony and reception you can be assured of a happy and memorable day in traditional surroundings.

The perfect plan for your special day

Authentic: Bedern Hall gives space for you to be yourselves, setting the right tone for sharing your day with those who matter. We will help you create a special day that stems from what's real and from genuine values.

Personal: For a celebration that reflects the best of you both, we'll sit down and chat with you about how we can personalise your wedding. We'll take care in shaping your day exactly as you wish and we're always on the end of the phone as the preparations progress.

Our in-house team have been working together for Bedern Hall since 1992. Our resident caterers use locally sourced, seasonal produce and offer a range of modern menus and plenty of choice for vegetarians, vegans and those with special dietary requirements.

Experience means we understand the importance of flexibility, so if you've got a favourite dish or have a theme in mind, we're more than happy to create it with you.

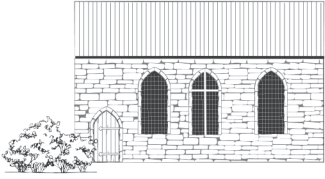

We can recommend a family of local suppliers to help set the perfect atmosphere; flowers, photos, invitations and even an evening venue. Be assured of personal attention from our small but professional team, and a service that is both dignified and relaxed.
